

BLACK

HISTORY

MONTH

EMBRACING OUR PAST, CELEBRATING OUR FUTURE

FEB 03-25

Black History Month Art Exhibit – Dena Love, Dena Strong
An art exhibition that reflects the devastation, love, and resilience, of an historic African American community that was affected by 2025 Eaton Canyon fires.
Location: Art Gallery

FEB 04

The Block Party: Join us inside of Gullo II from 12:00PM – 2PM for the start of Black History Month. There will be a West African Dance Performance, food and our very own McTate Stroman on the ones & twos.
Catered by Jackie's Place

FEB 13

Black Love is ALWAYS: Join us inside of Gullo II from 12:00PM-2PM for a spoken word, open mic event where historical and personal poems are shared by students and staff.
Desserts will be available

FEB 18

Lunch and a Movie: Join us inside of Gullo II from 12:00PM – 2PM as we stream "The Six Triple Eight," to learn about the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion unit of 850 Black women who served in World War II.

FEB 25

Lunch and a Movie: Join us inside of Gullo II from 12:00PM – 2PM as we stream "Shirley," a biopic based on the true story of Shirley Chisholm, the first Black woman elected to Congress in the United States.

FEB 27

Sip & Paint: Join us inside of Gullo II from 12:00PM – 2PM to close out Black History Month over food, drinks, and art. Art supplies available on a first come first serve basis.
Catered by Back-A-Yard Caribbean Grill